TO: Parents of the Jamboree Participants of the 2007 World Scout Jamboree

FROM: John L. Alline, Administrator, Jamboree Division

SUBJECT: FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR THE 21ST WORLD SCOUT JAMBOREE

It is just a few weeks until your Scout/Venturer along with the adult leaders will be on the way to the 21st World Scout Jamboree in the United Kingdom. We have all been working very hard to ensure that this is a memorable event for everyone involved. The jamboree site is expected to be full, with participation from every country in the world where Scouting exists.

1. Your Scoutmaster/Advisor has received the airline tickets and travel information in the past week. They will review and forward the information to you.
2. On July 23, 2007, we will activate our toll free number, 1-877-300-0261. This number can only be used in the United States. If you are out of the country, you will need to use the e-mail address listed below. This number is to be used only if you or your family has a life-threatening event, such as a medical emergency, death in the family, etc. Other emergency communications that are not in this category should be sent to worldjamboree@netbsa.org. Please remember that it could take several hours for emergency information to reach participants on site.
3. The mailing address for the jamboree is:
 - Participant's name
 - Participant's troop number
 - Subcamp name
 - 21st World Scout Jamboree
 - Hylands Park
 - Chelmsford
 - Essex
 - CM2 8WQ
 - UK

Please mark the envelope "Airmail."

4. Also enclosed is information related to 2007 World Scout Jamboree Travel Assistance benefits and Accident and Sickness Insurance benefits that are being provided as part of the jamboree fee.

You have entrusted your son or daughter to our care, and together we seek to create an environment governed by the Scout Oath and Law throughout the length of the jamboree experience and tour. The World Scout Jamboree experience will provide great learning opportunities and exposure to other cultures for our Scouts and Venturers. We will work with each youth to help them appreciate and understand the many cultural differences that exist across the globe, keeping in mind that all of us are joined by the common values of Scouting.

We will represent the Boy Scouts of America and, more important, the United States of America to the rest of the world's Scouts. Our actions will speak louder than words with our fellow Scouts. We and our nation will be judged by Scouts from other lands by what others see and hear from us. Let it be only the best America has to offer, the future leaders of our country.

"One World, One Promise," the theme of the 21st World Scout Jamboree, starts with your Scout or Venturer.
